

Loser

Stop adoring me
Stop following me
Stop watching me
Stop stalking me

I don't know you
Why you wanna know me
I don't love you
Why you wanna love me

Let me tell you o' stranger
Been there done that I know better
The passion the obsession you got whatever
Is self-oriented and soon will be over

For the love is planned and pursued never Rains it whenever and makes you a loser not conqueror
